SESSION April 24 th -26 th	See the session schedule	Subject to change Khenpo Tashi Sangpo Lag Lojong written by Jamyang Khyentse Wangpo Mind training practices, Lojong in Tibetan, enable us to stay strong and positive in the light of all life's challenges. Through mind training we can transform any negative circumstance into an opportunity to develop love, compassion and understanding. The greatest obstacle to happiness in life is being self-centered, and Buddhism offers wonderful training methods to change our mental habits. Jamyang Khyentse Wangpo was one of the greatest masters of the 19 th century, who started the Rimé movement in Tibet. Thanks to him, many special teachings of the old Tibet survived and came down to us. Commemoration of the passing of H.H. Jigdal Dagchen Sakya Rinpoche.
