"Parting from the Four Attachments" is a concise and powerful teaching on how to genuinely practice the Path. This teaching was given by Manjushri to Sachen Kunga Nyingpo (1092-1158). It is universally regarded as one of the jewels of Tibetan Buddhism. The four root lines comprise the very essence of Dharma: If you are attached to this life, you are not a Dharma practitioner. If you are attached to the cyclic existence, you do not have renunciation. If you are attached to your own purpose, you do not have Bodhicitta. If grasping arises, you do not have the view. Long life prayers on Her Eminence Jetsün Kushog Chimey Luding Rinpoches' Birthday
